

Dimitris Koronakos

Dimitris has always loves tennis , as a junior he trained full time at the Sanchez -Casals academy in Barcelona and later he had the opportunity to be part of Andre's Gimeno performance team , where he went to compete at a national level in Spain and has been sparring coach to World ranking players.

He was part of the technical staff as coach in several academies in Barcelona -Spain. Dimitris most recent role , before moving to England, was as a senior performance coach at Sports Federation of Azuay and later as a coach of high performance top ranked junior team where he travelled nationally and internationally for 4 years.

At the same moment he was the coach of Frank Beltran (wheelchair top hundred ranked player) , collaborated with the Paralympic Committee of Ecuador and was responsible for Andres Vasquez with top World ranking in deaf tennis.

Dimitris is a certified PTR professional and enjoys working with all ages and abilities. Dimitris brings this vast playing experience and knowledge necessary to produce players of the highest standard. He makes every coaching session informative offering fantastic technical and tactical understanding of the game of tennis and is passionate about helping all players reach their best potential.

Practising on high level and competing is still part of his life . Some of his recent results of the last year are Singles semi-finalist at Chandos tennis club grade 3 Men's tournament, finalist grade 3 doubles Men's Redbridge tournament . County champion over 35 among others .

Dimitris speaks fluently Greek, Spanish and English.

Price : £50/hour

Email: koronakosdimitris@gmail.com